

The visit of Professor

MICHAEL BURAWOY

in Wrocław

28 – 29 May 2018

PROGRAMME OF THE VISIT

28 V 10:00 – 12:00

Public Sociology — why do we need it?

Open seminar for students and secondary school students (based on readings selected by prof. Burawoy)

Venue

Institute of Sociology, University of Wrocław,
Koszarowa 3, room 234

Please register by sending an email to Justyna Kajta: juskajta@gmail.com

17:00 – 19:00

The Public University — A Battleground for Real Utopias

Open lecture

Venue

Barbara, Świdnicka 8B

29 V 10:00 – 13:00

What can we learn from cases? Extended case method in social sciences

Lecture and open seminar for students, PhD students and academic staff of higher education institutions in Wrocław

Venue

Institute of Sociology, University of Wrocław,
Koszarowa 3, room 234

Please register by sending an email to Justyna Kajta: juskajta@gmail.com

Uniwersytet
Wrocławski

Prof. Michael Burawoy (University of California, Berkeley, Sociology Department) — sociologist of work and social movements, expert in social research methodology, received numerous scientific and teaching awards. His main areas of theoretical reflection include public sociology, extended case method, labour process and ideologies of work.

Wrocławskie Centrum
Akademickie

ODDZIAŁ WROCLAWSKI

The visit of Prof. Michael Burawoy is co-funded by the City of Wrocław as a part of the Visiting Professors Program held by the Scientiae Wratislavienses fund.

All events are open and will be held in English
More information at: www.tinyurl.com/yd96hv2l